

Soaps for sale

An animal welfare charity has launched an on-line auction of soap goodies to raise money for World Animal Day. The sale, organised by the Naturewatch Foundation, is set to include a number of items with a soapy twist. Bidding begins on 25 September, and items for sale include EastEnders scripts, Corrie clothes, and a host of Emmerdale and The Bill memorabilia, alongside donations from the likes of David Beckham and Michael Caine. Proceeds will go towards supplying veterinary equipment for animal shelters in Eastern Europe.
