09:00 - 05 October 2007

Cheltenham-based Naturewatch has been helping co-ordinate events for World Animal Day today. The charity, in Hewlett Road, Cheltenham, has been encouraging animal lovers to get involved.

Debbie Dawson, administrative assistant at Naturewatch, said: "Our aim is to encourage animal lovers everywhere to hold special events to heighten public awareness of animal issues and to encourage people to think about how we relate to animals."

On Saturday, Evensong at Gloucester Cathedral will be addressed by The Rt Rev Dominic Walker, Bishop of Monmouth, who will reflect on the enslavement of animals.

The service will start at 4.30pm.
