Edgars Mission celebrates World Animal Day (VIC)

Tuesday, 23 September 2008

On Sunday 5 October 2008, Edgar's Mission Farm Sanctuary will celebrate World Animal Day with a day of fun-filled activities. Edgar's Mission is a not-for-profit sanctuary for animals and its founder Pam Ahern is the World Animal Day Ambassador for Australia.

A visit to Edgar's Mission gives you the chance to interact with over 100 rescued animal residents including pigs, cows, horses, sheep goats, ducks, chickens, bunnies, turkeys and three stars from the film Charlotte's Web.

They day's event plan is this...

10:00am Walk for the Animals and viewing of auction items

10.30am first Farm Tour

11.00am Bruce Poon -VVN-environmental impact of eating meat

11.15am Elizabeth Anile-ATAAC '2008 Girlfriend of the Year'

11.30am Mitchell Agility Dog Club display

11.45am Face to face meet Timmy Lamb and Priscilla Pig

12.15pm Lunch and the True Blue Country Line Dancers (join in!)

1.00pm Farm Tour OR

1.00pm Andrew Mclean PhD (Equine cognition and learning), BSc (zoology), Dip Ed

1.30pm Lawrence Pope VAA - Batty Business

2.00pm Noah Hannibal President - ALV-talking about his experiences protecting whales on the Sea Shepherd

2.30pm Mitchell Agility Dog Club

3.00pm Raffle winners announced, Silent Auction Closure and the Main Farm Tour featuring the World Famous 'Running of the Lambs'

Aside from the range of activities, a number of companies will have stands displaying animal-friendly products and information (drop by the aduki table and say hi!).
