

KSPCA TO CELEBRATE WORLD ANIMAL DAY

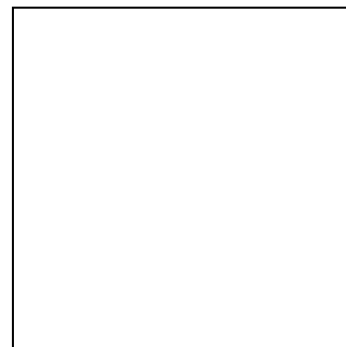

Kenyans care about all Animals

Coastweek - - We have received the honour from the World Animal Day organisation in UK to be the "Ambassador" of Kenya regarding this very important day.

Therefore KSPCA Mombasa wants to celebrate this day in a special way to show the whole world that the people of Kenya also are caring about all Animals.

We would like you all to be a part of it and tell everybody that animals are in the same way important for you like they are for us, and that you also fight for their rights.

The world animal day gives all animal lovers the possibility to talk for the ones that need us to be heard.

I am sure many of you would have brilliant ideas how to celebrate this day.

There is a special website for this special day and however we want to show the world our love to animals, everybody will see it afterwards on our Kenya page on this website.

With this opportunity we get the chance to make a change in the world towards the feelings to animals.

Please help us to say something very important to the world in the name of animals and share with us how you would like to talk about your love and concern.

Just send us an email with any ideas you have and we will select the best in our opinion.

If you are willing to help to organize this event together with us, please let us also know in your mail so we can contact you.

I hope we will get a lot of proposals so we can even be proud of the number of real animal lovers we have.

We will also put all your ideas on this website. Any other country can then perhaps celebrate the day in the way you want to do it.

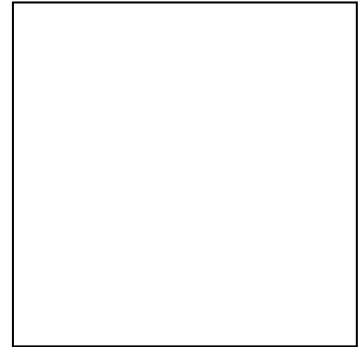

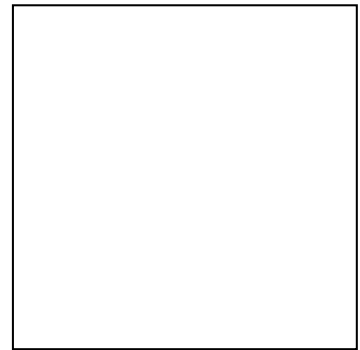

If you are interested to know more about the World Animal Day please visit the website.

For sending your idea use our kspca email address:

In the name of all animals we give you a huge thank you.

Marlen, KSPCA Mombasa.
