World Animal Day in Manila

Posted by Bill Belew in Animals

When they are not eating the creatures, they are playing with them in Manila, PI. World Animal day was celebrated in the PI. On world animal day, a man wrestled a boa, children antagonized a Bengal tiger, a priest baptized by sprinkling a baby Bengal tiger and a baby, diaper-wearing orangutan held up another priest and blessed him, er, the other way around.

GP is for celebrating the existence of our fellow inhabitants here on the planet we call home, but we wonder, why do they need to have a special day to do it. And, do the animals have a special World Human Day - a day when they decide to not eat us?

Babies are cute...especially baby animals.
