

This page contains a Flash digital edition of a book.

The St Francis Messenger

Edition 10 – Summer 2009

The Quarterly Newsletter for Compass Education Ltd

Summer came early this year and it has course in Ireland in conjunction with been exceptionally dry for the South West Happierhounds Dog Training (see edition of Scotland. Natural water sources have 7) we are now launching the same been stretched which has meant a daily opportunity in the UK.

The first two routine of fetching and carrying buckets of courses will be available to start in water for all the animals.

Despite all the September with practical assessments warnings that get put about we still hear taking place in Kent and Glasgow in early tragic tales of dogs being left in hot cars, 2010. The tutor for the Kent programme please remember that they are not will be Jackie Murphy who is featured on equipped to deal with high temperatures the next page with her dog Teddy.

and will quickly succumb to hyperthermia. For more details please contact the

It might seem obvious and you would Compass office on 0845 458 5981. or think that everyone must know about the email compass.ed@btinternet.com

ed@btinternet.com

dangers but apparently this is not the case.

Feline Care Certificate

There are still a few places left for the Wolf Study Day on the 12th of September For anyone involved in any aspect of so book soon if you do not want to miss caring for cats this course is a must. It is this unique opportunity, details are at the useful to petsitters, cattery workers and end of this newsletter under forthcoming rescue staff as well as the enthusiastic events or contact the office (0845 owner. It is a short course packed with 45859981). useful information. David Montgomery

NEWS NEWS NEWS Cercopan staff complete their studies.

Three New Courses Regular readers of the Messenger or those who know Compass will know that we

More courses are being developed all the have been supporting the work of time and here are the next three to become CERCOPAN which was founded in 1995 available. by Canadian Zena Tooze.

Higher Diploma - Feline Behaviour

Once again as a result of popular demand we are now launching a level 3 feline behaviour course as a progression from the Feline Behaviour and Psychology programme. This course will look more deeply into the psychological theory behind cat behaviour.

Diploma – Dog Behaviour and Training (with practical elements)

CERCOPAN staff with their Diplomas in Nigeria.

We have frequently been asked to provide a dog training course with a practical CERCOPAN is now one of the leading element. Following the success of such a environmental non-profit, non-government

1

Page 1 | Page 2 | Page 3 |

Page 4 | Page 5 | Page 6 |

Page 7 | Page 8