

Brian takes the lead for World Animal Day walk

NEWS.scotsman.com

Published Date: 02 September 2009

ANIMAL lovers are being asked to turn back the clock and join a parade in honour of Edinburgh's most famous dog.

The One O'Clock Gun Association is organising the Greyfriars Bobby Walk in Victorian dress on 4 October, to mark World Animal Day.

It is hoped hundreds will turn out to see chairman Brian McKenzie taking part as Colour Sergeant Scott, while Blue, a Yorkshire terrier from North Berwick, will be playing the loyal dog.

For more information, visit www.greyfriarsbobby.co.uk.