World Animal Day 2009 (VIC)

Friday, 11 September 2009

Edgar's Mission will again be celebrating World Animal Day in style, this year with a poo-throwing contest! To be held on Sunday 4 October, the day will offer lots of activities for young and old including a walk for the animals, guest speakers, vegan food and vegan-friendly trade tables.

Situated on 60 acres in Willowmavin (near Kilmore), Edgar's Mission is home to over 200 rescued farm animals and Pam Ahern, does an amazing job taking care of her charges. This day is important not only to highlight issues regarding animals, but also to raise much-needed funds for Edgar's Mission.

What: World Animal Day Celebration

When: Sunday 4 October 2008, 10am – 4pm (Edgar's tea time)

Where: Edgar's Mission Farm Sanctuary, 365 McHarg's Road, Willowmavin, VIC

Cost: FREE
