

Help a Cyprus dog this weekend

Argos, which has helped hundreds of abandoned animals in Cyprus, say they hope that the public will get behind the campaign

FAMAGUSTA GAZETTE

• Fri, Oct 01, 2010

The Argos Animal Sanctuary has announced that it has secured the support of some of the areas finest restaurants for its "Help to feed us too!" campaign which is taking place this weekend leading up to World Animal day on October 4th.

From Today until Monday 4th of October, the following restaurants will donate one euro for every table served to the Argos Sanctuary

Folio in Kapparis, Blue Spice in Perneria, Limelight, Hokkaido and Sage in Ayia Napa.

Diners will be invited to share in the support by making a donation of their own towards the cause.

Initiating the campaign was George Machattos owner of the magnificent Folio restaurant in Kapparis.

Being a dog owner himself he fully appreciates both the responsibility of being a pet owner and the joy they bring to his family in particular his children.

George showed no hesitation in getting behind what he believes is both a worthwhile cause and asset to the community.

Argos, which has helped hundreds of abandoned animals in Cyprus, say they hope that the public will get behind the campaign by supporting the participating restaurants over the weekend and raise much needed funds towards feeding the 250 plus animals in their care. —

Copyright © Famagusta Gazette 2010

